

NAME: PLAMONDON, Simon PARISH: St. Francois
(Also Plamondo, Plamondeau, Plomando)

ENTERED SERVICE: NWC: 1820 DATES: b.ca.1796-1802
HBC: 1821 (on union) d. 1900

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year* Position Post District HBCA Reference

*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May

North West Company:

1820-1821 Middleman Athabasca F.4/40 p.62

Hudson's Bay Company:

1821 - 1823 Middleman Athabasca B.239/g/61, 62, 63; F.4/40,p.62
1823 - 1824 Middleman Western Caledonia B.239/x/2 p.434
1824 free at Montreal F.4/40 p.62
1824 - 1827 Middleman Western Caledonia B.239/g/4,65,66
1827 - 1828 Middleman Fort Colvile Columbia B.239/g/67
1828 - 1835 Middleman Columbia B.239/g/68-74
ca.1835 - 1865 farmer at Cowlitz Joint Commission
1846 Elected representative to the Oregon Provisional Legislature Toledo, Lewis County plaque (see Search File)
1847 Plamondon home used as Lewis County Court Toledo, Lewis County plaque (see Search File)
1854-1855 Plamondon provided supplies and protection to the Cowlitz Indians during a period of strained relations with the settlers Toledo, Lewis County plaque (see Search File)
1900 died 3 months before his 100th birthday Toledo, Lewis County plaque (see Search File)

See also: Wallin, Deborah, "A Very Pretty Man": The Life of Simon Plamondon (M.A. Thesis, Western Washington University, Bellingham, Washington, 1987)
James R. Gibson, Farming the Frontier: The Agricultural Opening of the Oregon Country, 1786-1846, Vancouver, BC: UBC Press, 1985, pp. 92, 121

British and American Joint Commission on the Hudson's Bay & Puget Sound Agricultural Companies' Claims, Washington: Philip and Solomons, 1865, Vol.2, pp.11-15

